Notice To Shareholders

Nineteenth annual general meeting

Notice is hereby given that the nineteenth annual general meeting of members of Albaraka Bank Limited will be held on Tuesday, 09 June 2009 at the offices of Albaraka Bank, First floor, 134 Or AB Xuma Street (Formerly Commercial Road), Durban at 09h00 to conduct the following business:

1 Special Resolution

It is proposed that, subject to the approval of the Registrar of Banks, the following resolution be considered and passed, with or without amendment, as a Special Resolution to amend the Articles of Association of the company:

1.1 Article 1 of the bank’s Articles of Association be amended by the addition of the following paragraph:
(a) “Electronic communication” has the meaning set out in section 5 of the Electronic Communications and Transactions Act;

1.2 Articles 108, 109 and 110 of the company’s Articles of Association be substituted for the following:

Notices, Communications and Reports

108

Any notice, communication or report to be given to or by any person pursuant to the Articles shall be in writing, or shall be given using electronic communications, to the member’s address, that address being the address notified by the member to the company.

The company may give any notice, communication or report to a member either personally, or by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member at his registered address, or by leaving it at that address, or by giving it using electronic communications, to an address for the time being notified to the company by the member.

Any notice which may be given by advertisement shall be inserted in the Gazette and in such newspapers as the directors may from time to time determine.

109

In the case of joint holders of a share, all notices, communications or reports shall be given to the joint holder whose name stands first in the register of members in respect of the joint holding and any notice, communication or report so given shall be sufficient notice, communication or report to all the joint holders. A member whose registered address is not within the Republic and who gives to the company an address within the Republic at which notices, communications or reports may be given to him, or an address to which notices, communications or reports may be sent using electronic communications, shall be entitled to have notices, communications or reports given to him at that address. In this Article, “address”, in relation to electronic communications, includes any number or address used for the purposes of such communications.

110

A notice, communication or report may be given by the company to the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member by sending or delivering it, in any manner authorised by the Articles for the giving of notice, communication or report to a member, addressed to such person or persons by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the insolvent or by any like description at the address, if any, within the Republic supplied for that purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled. Until such an address has been supplied, a notice, communication or report may be given in any manner in which it might have been given if the death or insolvency had not occurred.
Notice To Shareholders

If any notice, communication or report is required to be signed or initialed, by or on behalf of a person, that signing or initialed may be effected in any manner provided for in the Electronic Communications and Transactions Act,

1.3 Article 112 of the company's Articles of Association be substituted for the following:
Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Proof that a notice contained in an electronic communication was sent in accordance with the provisions of the Electronic Communications and Transactions Act shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. A notice shall be deemed to be given at the expiration of 48 hours after the envelope containing it was posted or, in the case of a notice contained in an electronic communication, at the expiration of 48 hours after the time it was sent. Any notice by advertisement shall be deemed to have been given on the day upon which the advertisement was published.

Reason:
The bank's Articles of Association as they are currently worded, do not allow for the electronic distribution of notices, communications and reports to shareholders. The reason for the proposed amendment is to allow the bank to electronically submit notices, communications and reports to those shareholders who wish to receive such electronic communications.

Effect:
The effect of the passing of the Special Resolution is such that the bank will now be able to distribute notices, communications and reports to those shareholders who wish to receive such communications in an electronic format, which is in keeping with current trends.
